

"It's going to be a fascinating wine to taste once in bottle. It's a broody, introspective but fascinating Syrah with black olive and clove on the nose, almost animally. The palate is masculine and tannic, rough hewn and square-joined, but still very attractive. This is more Cornas than Côte-Rôtie, grippy and compelling."

(92 -94) points
Neal Martin - eRobertParker.com

Tamboerskloof Syrah

Handcrafted in every sense, the gentle, minimal intervention cellar practices and understated, natural packaging materials, echo the craftsmanship and attention to detail synonymous with Kleinood.

Award Highlights

- Syrah 2013

This wine has been tasted and scored (92-94) points pre-release.
Wine Advocate taster, Neal Martin

Tim Atkin
92 Points

- Syrah 2012

Wine Advocate taster, Neal Martin
94 Points

- Syrah 2011

Tim Atkin
93 points

- Syrah 2011

Six Nations Wine Challenge
Gold medal

- Syrah 2010

Syrah du Monde
International competition
Gold medal

- Syrah 2009

Steve Tanzer, Wine Access
91 points

- Syrah 2008

Wine Advocate taster, Neal Martin
93 points

